TREFFRONK No. 12.

HONGHONG, JULY 19TH, 1889. THE Sanitary Board's power to make by-laws under the Public Health Ordin. ance of 1887 is affirmed to the fullest extent by the letter from the Colonial Secretary read at the last meeting of the Board. the expression of opinion contained in the cognised that the Governor has no power to of direct any reconsideration or amendment of letter the Acting Attorney-General course responsible, and he seems to have deemed it accessify to answer an anticipated charge of inconsistency against the Govern. | the Legislative Council for approval or rement. "In conclusion I am to state," writes jection. In the case of the by-laws relating the Colonial Secretary, " that the opinion I to the compulsory vacating of infected prenow given is in no way inconsistent with any mises the intention of the Board was set action taken by the Government. On previous occasions when objections were taken tive Council being consulted at all. Certain Rules of H.B.M. Supreme and other Courts they were objections to matters of form. of the by-laws were vetoed as " beyond There has been no question as to the powers the proper scope of by-laws," and another of the Board to frame by-laws." This can. set was prepared in accordance with His Exnot but be regarded as somewhat antagonis. cellency's directions and submitted to the tie to the opinion expressed in a letter of Council. On any future occasion of a like the S1st July, 1888, in which the Colonial kind it is to be hoped the Sanitary Board, Secretary wrote :-- Then section 13 and sub-esction 1 in effect give the Board power to prescribe by by-laws the details the requirements of the Ordinance so that where the Board has power to insist upon the requirements of the Ordinance it can also impose its own rules as to the precise manner in which these require- same as arranged for Wednesday. ments shall be complied with. The power to make bylaws under sub-section 1 of sec tion 18 amounts to this and no more." Here it was certainly not the form of the by-laws but the power of the Board that was under discussion. Agair, in a letter read at a meeting of the Board held on the 16th January objection was taken by the Government not only to the form but to the sco of certain by-laws passed by the Board for the compulory vacating of infected premises. To the lay mind it would seem that a reference to the Ordinance ought to show lay mind his not the aubtlety of the legal mind. The Ordinance says plainly enough and when made, to alter, amond, or revoke by-laws with regard to the following matters," and then follows a long string of subjects on which the by-laws are to be made. But says Mr. Francis, Q.O., this does not give to be given by the by-laws. As to a number of autijeds, there is no such provision in for the by-laws to give effect to. In this opinion he seems to have been to some extent supported by Attorney-General O'MALLEY in the letter of the Sist July. 1888, wherein it is stated that the power to but also in India. Colonel Conway Gordon retions, we ber to state that we continue to make by-laws amounts simply to this, that ports of the Makum (Assam) coalfields:—"The quality is kept in Stook. Our long experience the requirements of the Ordinance, it can use, both for marine and for railway purposes. and intimate acquaintance with the Trade and also impose its own rules as to the precise Company are taking large quantities. Contracts manner in which those requirements shall are being negotiated with the British India be complied . From this it would der. Steam Navigation Company for supplying coal tainly appear that where the Ordinance makes | was 101.537 tons." Coal of an excellent quality no requirements the Board can have no is being excavated at Cherrajunji, for the use power to make by-laws. We must confess, of Cherrajunj Company State Railway. "It however, that we cannot endorse the argu- nel coal, giving out great heat, and is admirably ment. It seems to us that when the Legislature empowered the Board to make by-laws on certain matters not specifically deals with in the Act itself, the intention was that the Board should exercise that power, that it in ceased to act as agents of the Austral ad, and effect transferred to the Board the right and duty of legislating on these matters, subject Daws & Co.—which means that the vessel wil to the aubsequent approval of the Legislative Council, all by-laws passed by Sanitary Board having to be submitted to and passed by the Council before they be come law. Mr. FRANCIS supports his postwhich Railway Companies are subject wit or regard to the making of by-laws. The ana logy between the cases is, however, not very easy to perceive. The Sanitary Board public body working in the public interest, whereas Railway Corporations work for interests of shareholders, which may be in conflict with public interests. In Webster's rangements may be best made for introducing Dictionary we find "by-law" defined as " DOSE: -FOR DIABRHEA, COLIC, AND DY. town law; the law of a city, town, or private corporation," By section 13 of the Public Health Act the Legislature has conferred on the Sanitary Board the power of making ant to Mr. Muir, will be acting-manager, and laws on certain aubjects; in certain cases where the Legislature has itself enacted certain provisions on these subjects Sanitary Board must see that its bylaws do not conflict with these provifree hand, as is the case with regard to a son why it should, not exercise that free hand, subject of course to the subsequent provided for in the Act. This take to be the meaning of the last Directions for use: - Sprinkle some on hot deliverance of the Government on subject, but it is certainly very different from the position at first taken up. recognised at the outset, a great deal of useless and somewhat ridiculous working in a circle with regard to the framing of by-laws Amban and Mr. Hart disappearing quietly in other man not in custody, with assaulting a man would have been eaved. Dr. Noetling, who has recently reported en the Upper Burmah oil fields, estimates that, with proper apparatus, the production might be raised the Board power to make by-laws unless there to 50,000 viss a day. Coal mining in Asia appears likely to have considerable results, not only in the Far East, here the Board has power to insist upon appreciated, and it is finding its way into general Some steamer lines, including the P. and O. to their steamers. The total output for the year suited for atoming purposes.

Referring to the steamship communication between Singapore and Australia, the Straits Times says: - Measrs. It may be remembered that early in the year we announced that the Blue-Found line were building a new steamer especially for the trade between Australia and Singapore, to run in connection with their main line homewards, and that a re tion by a reference to the limitations to presentative of theirs was busy arranging mattors in Australian ports, and that of course Mesers: Manefield & Co. would be the local agents. Now if there is to be competition on the route, it will be between these two very nowerful lines, the B. I. and the O. S. S.

In connection with the Rawang Mines, the Straits Times says :—It is intended that in about a month Mr. Muir will go home to England partly for his health and partly to see what arnew capital to work the 2,000 acre concession of ill-side land recently granted to the company The new concession is of course free from any chligation to Messrs. The Singapore Free Press of the 11th instant says :- We hear of rather serious trouble which aside by the Governor without the Legislaoccurred on Tuesday evening on board the steamer Jacob Christensen, which left for Java yesterday morning after baying discharged a cargo of coal at New Harbour. > THE GOVERNMENT ANALYST'S REPORT.

The following is the report of the Government Analyst for 1888:-SIB.—I have the honour to submit a statement of the work done in the t-mporary laboratory of this Hospital during the year 1888. Owing to my being appointed to set as Sanitary Superintendent and Secretary to the Sanitary Board during the absence of Mr. Hugh McCallum, only the most necessary investigations were conducted during the period under

Moreover there are numbers of Solanscoous plants throughout China the flowers of which, when out up and incorporated with food. it would be difficult to distinguish from those of those of the Thorn Apple, and which may contain alkaloids that cannot be distinguished n cases of poisoning, from atropine.

In the case under notice a man, who had as sisted in the preparation of the stew, was charged with administering a stopelying drug and tried at the Supreme Court, but the case fell to the ground through lack of evidence. Alleged tea drugging -In August an examination was ordered by Government of some ten infusion which it was alleged had produced dissiness in two women who had drank thereof Unlike the case quoted above there was no real trustworthy evidence of poisoning. Both wemen when brought to the Hospital by the with them, and as they refused to remain until the arrival of a Doctor, the analyst was left without the clue which could have been given by a physiologist had they been only slightly under the influence of some poison or other. In this instance, although according to the Police report there was reason to suppose that the women had been under the influence of some drug, all the attempts made to discover a poisonous principle in the tea failed. Where the Police have suspicion of poisoning t is of the greatest importance to let a Doctor see the supposed victims with the least possible delay. In a case of poisoning by the Chinese drug Tun Chaung-tso, the active principle of which was first isolated in this laboratory in 84. and identified with Gelsemium elegans, Benth, a loss of time may mean the life of victim. In a trumped up case of poisoning a Medical man could, by early observation, probably save weeks of finitless work on the part of the Analyst. The circumstances of this case would suggest the desirability in all instances where the Police consider it necessary to take persons to Hospital who are alleged to have been poisoned, of their receiving standing orders to detain the suspected persons until a Doctor arrives on the scene.

Before leaving this section of my report I The officials stationed in provinces whence would respectfully urge on the Government that the annual contributions have not yet arrived necessity of introducing measures, for controlling the sale of certain medicines which are used by the Chinese for criminal noisoning. Here is auother "musical" anecdote. The other day an entimelastic young man called on a well-known composer, and begged him to hear Manile him sing, and if he approved his vocal talent to get him an engagement on the stage. "But are you quite sure you are fit for a professional singer's life?" replied the composer. The, no doubt, shows ignorance as to religion, but a great deal of truth as regards the sauce, which, probably, was referred to as the very E-minocent concoction of a white sauce consisting sither of some floor, butter, and milk, or some bread and milk both equally tasteless, and making the despair of foreign travellers in this country who are accustomed to good French sauces. The many English travellers going to the Paris Exhibition at this time will no doubt be struck with the difference between fine French cookery and the somewhat monotonous English cookery, and it may be worth while to ask what is the secret of the well-known success of French cookery. This secret is simply the "stock-pot," a preparation of concentrated most juice enabling the cook to give to all dishes soups, sauces, and entrees the fine meat-flavour which distinguishes refined cookery from coarse cookery. Allany cooks, undoubtedly, know how to prepare lock, but in most cases the quality of such stock is too week and insipid, and besides does t keep in anything like warm weather; whilst Meat, being the finest concentrated meat-juice (11b. extract equal to 40lb. best lean most), keeps for any length of time, and in any temperature. and enables the cook to obtain the highest perfection in French cookery.
